test case describtion	steps	test scenario check on Admin User can set OTP notification role per role	1-go to system login 2-then navigate to group management grid 3-click on add group button	verify the admin can access only for the page main system login verify the admin can edit the settings any time verify if button(OTP settings) is displayed verify if the checkbox selection with two options send via(SMS,Email) for the user verify if one or both methods is select at the same time by user verify the login code has sent to the selected method (Email) verify if the OTP SMS should be sent to user'mobile verify ensure that enable of the button save/update after validation is done verify the system create 2-factor authentication for specific role's user check on The security code based on the pre-set hours value	1-go to system login as admin 2-then navigate to group management grid 3-click on add group button 4-click on edit group button 5-View Group permission	verify if the admin can Set the Pre-set Hours Value verify if The security code have usability within 24 hours verify if System can generate the logging session for the user verify that the system has a limited time verify if the system kick the user out after the code is expired verify if there is a popup alert ok button will be displayed verify that the response of system is working and when the user click on ok button the user should be log out verify that system going to regenerate the new security code to the user via SMS or both of theem verify if the user can't be able to login with expired code